Governor Brewer Announces 2014 Volunteer Service Award Recipients

PHOENIX – Governor Jan Brewer and the Governor's Commission on Service and Volunteerism today announced the winners of the 2014 Governor's Volunteer Service Awards.

Established in 2002, the Volunteer Service Awards are held annually to honor Arizonans who have demonstrated outstanding service to their communities and fellow citizens over the past year. Each year, a statewide panel of judges evaluates nominees based on need, action, innovation and impact of their service. This year, eight recipients have been recognized with the award, considered the most prestigious of its kind in Arizona. They include:

Lifetime Achievement Category

- Robert Hollister (Sierra Vista)

Adult Category

- Wanda Moore (Tucson)

National Service Category

- Phyllis Bennett (Phoenix)

Youth Category

- Matthew Kaplan (Phoenix)

Large Organization Category

- Arizona 4-H (Tucson)

Small Organization Category

- Student United Way at ASU (Tempe)

Nonprofit Category

- United Methodist Outreach Ministries (UMOM) - Phoenix

Youth Group Category

- Youth Mentors for the Youth Empowered for Success Program (Tucson)

The winners will be honored on Friday, April 25 in Mesa at a luncheon hosted by the Governor's Commission on Service and Volunteerism.
